SACWA MEMBERSHIP

Join South Australia's largest women's organisation that serves its community in both urban and rural South Australia as well as assisting in the South Pacific area.

SACWA is a voice in lobbying social issues. It offers the opportunity to volunteer your skills to assist a valuable women's organisation.

With membership, you will receive information about Association activities on a regular basis. You will also enjoy member benefits such as access to accommodation in CWA Clubs and holiday cottages throughout Australia.

BRANCH MEMBERSHIP

Joining one of SACWA's many daytime or evening branches will offer you networking, socialising and friendship opportunities.

You will be able to share your knowledge with other members and learn new skills from each other.

You will also have the opportunity to fundraise and support your local community.
